

FAQ

Is this all day?

Yes, the program will run all day, from 9:45am until 3pm.

Do we need to RSVP?

Letting us know you're coming helps us cater adequately for everyone. Use the QR code on the back to sign up.

Where can I park?

Parking will be limited at Glenbrook, particularly around the church where those with mobility issues will be given priority. See over for more details on transport and parking.

What if I can't afford the lunch cost?

You're very welcome to bring your own lunch. However, there will be some sponsorships arranged beforehand, so your lunch cost could be paid. Contact the office for more info.

What about my kids?

We are planning to run kid's programs for various ages, so everyone can feel welcome and looked after.

WHAT IS THIS ALL ABOUT?

We are one church who meet in several locations - and this gives us a rare opportunity to meet all together - to sing God's praises, listen to God's word, pray, and enjoy a united fellowship.

Let's do this as we head into our important Christmas Season.

WHO IS WILLIAM TAYLOR?

William Taylor grew up on a farm in Cornwall. He served in the British Army as an Officer in the Royal Green Jackets for five years before being ordained. In 1995 he joined St Helen's Church, Bishopsgate, in the heart of the City of London, and became Rector in 1998. The ministry at St Helen's has for many years had a focus on reaching the business community; there are also vibrant Sunday Congregations reaching amongst others, students, young workers, families and internationals. William is married to Janet, and they have three adult children – Emily, Digby and Archie. He has authored some books to help people understand the Bible including, 'Partnership', 'Understanding the Times', 'The Word One to One', 'Style or Substance?', 'Revolutionary Sex' and 'Revolutionary Work'. He was a contributor to the 'Proclamation Bible'. He is also editor of the 'Read Mark Learn' series: 'John', 'Romans' and 'Luke (volumes 1 and 2)'.
